

My Lola

If you had seen my Lola

Even for an instant
even for a day
if you had seen my Lola
you would never forget

Even for an instant
even for a day
you would need three lifetimes to forget her smile

Her smile like the sun shining upon my heart

Ay!
I would give everything to have her once more I would give everything to caress her again gently clasping her waist with my arms witnessing the beauty of the naked skin of a body that made you lose your mind
