

Sueño, cielo

Tonight, I have cheated on that cold wind that took you wherever you are and I have dreamed about your skin I will tell you what I am going to do with these dreamy gifts

I will put together all good in my soul and fingers to tell you in my song that I still feel you

Cielo, cielo, cielo*
I dream, dream, dream about you, cielo, cielo cielo you are in my dream, dream, dream

I picture you in another shore asking what you have to do to send me smile
on a paper boat
Time is but a string that maybe one can cut

*The word 'cielo' is often used in Spanish as an equivalent for 'darling'
